While the exhaustion requirements can be waived, Brady's case does not merit a departure. His conditions do not seem that serious and there is nothing about the current conditions at Lexington that justify such a departure. In these circumstances a departure from the statutory scheme is not merited. 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(a).

SO ORDERED
